

EIFF YOUTH WEEKENDER SCHEDULE

Friday 20th August

EIFF Youth meets Jack Lowden [PG]

What's the one magic quality you need to make it as an actor? Don't miss this candid chat from the rising star of Scottish cinema - full of tips, advice and insight into the film scene and breaking through from Scotland.

5PM @EIFFtv Youtube

EIFF Youth New Visions Short Film Competition 2021 [15]

FREE on Filmhouse at Home and EIFF TV YouTube Channel

This showcase has been carefully selected by the EIFF Youth team, and promises to be entertaining, thought provoking and inspirational. Three awards are up for grabs, with the winners announced after the screening in a special Q&A event.

7PM @EIFFtv Youtube
Filmhouse at Home

Saturday 21st August

How to get into Film & TV [PG]

Interested in working in film and tv? This session gives you a unique opportunity to hear what it's really like to work on set. Meet young trainees who've been working on Amazon Studio's The Rig and find out how they got into the industry. Produced in partnership with Screen NETS.

2PM @EIFFtv Youtube

How to green your production [PG]

Katy Murdoch of BAFTA Albert takes us through the top ten tips for keeping your production planet friendly.

3PM @EIFFtv Youtube

Film Fest in the City: Hunt for the Wilderpeople [12A]

A charming adventure comedy, it combines all the best elements of a Taika Waititi film - it's wild, entertaining and adventure packed! Come along to Film Fest in the City to watch this crowd pleaser!

5PM St Andrew Square

EIFF Youth meets Our Ladies [15]

Director Michael Caton Jones and actors Tallulah Greive and Sally Messha tell us all about their new film, Our Ladies. It's a riotous tale of Highland, Catholic schoolgirls who use a choir competition in Edinburgh as an opportunity to party. In cinemas from 27 August, so get primed for it here!

7PM @EIFFtv Youtube

21 21 21 Watch Party: Hearts Beat Loud [12A]

Watch party on @eiffyouth Instagram

Record lovers - this one is for you! A feel-good movie featuring a great soundtrack, and brilliant central characters. It will leave you with a smile on your face and a desire to run to your favourite record shop! We'll be sharing our thoughts on the film on Instagram for our watch-along party.

8PM @eiffyouth Instagram

EIFF YOUTH WEEKENDER SCHEDULE

Sunday 22nd August

Edinburgh & Lothians Schools Film Competition 2021 [PG]

12PM @EIFFtv Youtube

Our annual schools' competition returns with a special online showcase celebrating local film making talent. Produced in partnership with Screen Education Edinburgh and Arts and Creative Learning, City of Edinburgh Council.

How to get into Film Journalism [12A]

2PM @EIFFtv Youtube

Calling all budding film critics! How do you get published? How do you pitch for work? How do you get paid? Find out all this and more in this session where commissioning editors and freelancers share their top tips.

Produced in partnership with EIFF Young Critics Programme and supported by James and Morag Anderson.

How to get your music right(s) [15]

3PM @EIFFtv Youtube

Join Simon Toner as he takes a young filmmaker through the best way to add music to your film, from copyright free compositions to working with a composer.

21 21 21 Watch Party: Les Diaboliques [12A]

6PM @eiffyouth Instagram

Watch party on @eiffyouth Instagram

This dark, twisting tale of love and betrayal will fill you with dread, and thrill you with jump scares. Directed by Henri-Georges Clouzot, who is regarded as the 'French Hitchcock'. Join us for our watch-along party on Instagram - but remember to keep the light on!

Film Fest in the City: Amélie [15]

8PM St Andrew Square

Amélie opened EIFF in 2001 and became an instant classic. The film feels like a warm hug, taking viewers on a journey through the streets of Paris. 20 years after its first release, Amélie still spreads happiness. It will screen at Film Fest in the City as part of our EIFF Youth Weekender.

EIFF Youth is funded through the PLACE Programme, a partnership between the Scottish Government through Creative Scotland, the City of Edinburgh Council and the Edinburgh Festivals.

Thanks to our supporters

